

Undeniable

Josh Wilson

(Undeniable, undeniable)

When I was a young kid, I felt it deep down in my bones
Father, when I met You, I knew You were there in my soul
No, I never needed a reason, just faith like a child
To see the Divine with more than my eyes

I found faith, undeniable faith
I found hope, undeniable hope
I found love unconditional, love that won't let me go, so

I believe, in something greater that I can't explain
I believe, all creation's pointing to Your name
I believe, it's been 2000 years and hearts still change
It's clear to me You're here with me
God, You are undeniable
Undeniable, undeniable, indisputable, irrefutable
This is what I know in my bones
It's clear to me You're here with me
God, You are undeniable

Now I'm a little bit older, and I shoulder the weight of these doubts
All of these questions keep pressing me to figure You out
But even on the bad days when my faith is wounded and weak
I'll fall to my knees and pray for a mustard seed of

Faith, undeniable faith
Give me hope, undeniable hope
Give me love unconditional, love that won't let me go, so

I believe, in something greater that I can't explain
I believe, all creation's pointing to Your name
I believe, it's been 2000 years and hearts still change
It's clear to me You're here with me
God, You are undeniable
Undeniable, undeniable, indisputable, irrefutable
This is what I know in my bones
It's clear to me You're here with me
God, You are undeniable

Faith
Give me hope
Give me love unconditional, love that won't let me go

I believe, in something greater that I can't explain
I believe, all creation's pointing to Your name
I believe, it's been 2000 years and hearts still change
It's clear to me You're here with me
God, You are undeniable
Undeniable, undeniable, indisputable, irrefutable
This is what I know in my bones
It's clear to me You're here with me
God, You are undeniable
