

Always Been / Always Be

Joshua James

I'll take an aeroplane in the morning
I don't care what time
I keep waiting at the window
I feel I am losing my mind

Have you asked all the neighbors?
Or you could look for Luther, he's wise
I'll keep my eye on the driveway
I'm certain I'll find a ride

Because it's me and you, and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be

Now I'm crying on your pillow
Just asking the question to why
Will you miss me, darling, don't you miss me?
I feel I am losing my mind

Because it's me and you, and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
It's me and you, and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be in love

But for now I'll just take an aeroplane in the morning
And I don't care what time
I'll be waiting at the window
I think I am losing my mind

Have you tried any neighbors?
Have you found Jesus alive?
I'll keep my eye out [?]
I'm certain you'll find out why

'Cause it's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
It's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
It's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
It's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be

It's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
It's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
It's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
It's me and you and you and me
We've always been and we'll always be
