

Broke

Joshua James

Broke accounts, hell I broke a sweat
Bought some things I sort of regret about now

I broke your glasses but I broke the ice
You said that I was an asshole and I paid the price

Broken hearts while I've broken necks
I've done some things that I'd love to forget but I can't

I broke my pace and my appetite
Sometimes I'm so full of shit that it should be a crime

I broke a promise cause my car broke down
Such a classic excuse to shove your bronze for now

Woke up and I'ma lose somehow
It's the end of discussions that just go round and round, and r ound and round and round and round, round and round
They should have been anyway
Laying and wait...
