Haunting

Joshua James

Forever, forever in life
Forever, forever in life, for now
Forever, forever in life
Forever, forever in life, for now

Driving 'bout a hundred and twenty miles per hour
Looking for the flashing lights to come slow me down
Maybe an officer can talk some sense to this broken flower
Heading at this pace, I'm afraid I'm the next to drown

What did you think it would prove?
That love is greater than death?
Hanging your body for waste, how could I ever forget?
And I lie in bed awake thinking of how you left me haunted fore ver

Forever with you in here
Forever with you

Now I'm picking up the boys at a local soccer arena
I don't dare to even mention your name when silence fills the v an
When I pull in the drive, I pretend like it never happened
Then a blood rush leaving, screaming curses up toward the fan

What did you think it would prove? That love is greater than de ath?
Hanging your body for waste, how could I ever forget?
And I lie awake in bed thinking of how you're gonna haunt me fo rever

I made it back to the room where the smell of your sweat
Is taking over the sheets, making me sick of your death
And I roll around and find another memory that will haunt me fo rever

What did you think it would prove? That love is greater than de ath?
Hanging your body for waste, how could I ever forget?

With you

Forever, forever in life
(Forever with you in here)
Forever, forever in life, for now
Forever, forever in life
(Forever with you, forever with you in here)

Forever, forever in life, for now
