

I Believe I'm Falling

Joshua Radin

I've been tryin for years now
You've been runnin away
But I kept believin' that somehow
There might come a day
When you, would tell me something new
That you're ready to love me too
And you say to me
I believe I'm fallin
Oh I believe I'm fallin for you

I wanna take you away somewhere
A house by the sea
Drink some wine, forget our cares
Sounds like heaven to me

Then you, would tell me something new
That you're ready to love me too
And you say to me...
I believe I'm fallin
Oh I believe I'm fallin
Oh I believe I'm fallin
Oh I believe I'm fallin, falling, falling for you

Sundown, feet in the sand
As we lay by the fire
I don't know how late it is
When I'm looking at you
I'm not tired cause

I believe I'm fallin
Oh I believe I'm fallin
Oh I believe I'm fallin
Oh I believe I'm fallin, falling, falling for you
