

Tomorrow Is Gonna Be Better

Joshua Radin

Sometimes it's easier to hide away
When the winter comes and it's shorter days,
But I know the dark clouds won't stay,
Tomorrow is gonna be better.
Sometimes it's easier to hit the road,
When the world has given you a heavy load.
But if you stay and face it I know,
Tomorrow is gonna be better,
Let the rain fall,
Let the rain fall,
To the day's new,
And all that's left, is just me and you.
The best part of us is part of me,
So with you is where I rather be,
But if you can I understand I still believe,
Tomorrow is gonna be better,
Let the rain fall,
Let the rain fall,
To the day's new,
And all that's left, is just me and you.
I know it's just one of those days,
But you stay strong I'm gonna find a way to take it off
And make it okay,
Tomorrow is gonna be better,
Tomorrow is gonna be better,
Let the rain fall,
Let the rain fall.
Til' the day's new,
And all that's left is just me and you.
Let the rain fall,
Let the rain fall.
Till' the day's new,
And all that's left is just me and you,
And all that's left is just me and you.
