

I Will Return

Joshua Tillman

one day
I will return
to my home
to my mother's arms

one day
I'll board a plane
and fly away
from a life I made

one day
I will return
from a life of sin
that I have learned

one day
I'll understand
how to love
with broken hands

(ooh..)

one day
I'll see a lord
and my chains will fall with just one word

and that one word
is the sweetest sound
of saving grace
falling down

one day
I will be free
from this heart
black as the sea

(ooh..)

one day
I'll understand
how to love
with broken hands
