

Loving You

Joss Stone

The sun was shinin', where did you go?
I've been lookin' 'round, checkin' for you
Where the [?] on the flicker show
I lit a fire for you, babe

Come back
Won't you come back to me?
We got a chance to be more than just friends
If you'd noticed me
Once you come back to me
I'm the girl of your dreams
I should try to be
I'd be loving you all day
Thinkin' the things to say to you
I wanna make you stay

Now please don't keep your distance
There'll be no resistance from me
Do you care to know I'm free for the taking?
I fear your eyes are tired
The night is gettin' heavy
But the morning's [?], it's not right yet, baby
There's still time left, baby
For you to hold me closer
Have you got somewhere to be?

Come back
Won't you come back to me?
We got a chance to be more than just friends
If you'd noticed me
Once you come back to me
I'm the girl of your dreams
I should try to be
I'd be loving you, oh
I love all the day
Thinkin' the things to say to you
I wanna make you stay

I'll be making things slow
This is not my break
But I cannot get you to stay
I want you, babe
When I'm loving you, loving you, oh
Oh, my babe, oh, my days, oh my

It's not right yet, baby
For you to hold me close, baby
For you to hold me close
Have you got somewhere to be?
