

No Regrets

Joss Stone

Now I know
Where I want you to go
Somewhere
Outside of my world

I'm better off without you now
I want a life without the rows

I'm heading for the skies
You've been holding me down for too long
You were wrong
But I don't mind
I'm choosing love now

No regrets
I've no regrets
Choosing love now
Finally figured it out

There's the door
It's for you to walk through
But please leave your keys on the table

All the suffering can stop right now
I'm over it
So just get out

I'm heading for the skies
You've been holding me down for too long
You were wrong
But I don't mind
I'm choosing love now

No regrets
I've no regrets
I'm choosing love now
I finally figured it out
I'm choosing love

I'm, yes, I'm heading for the skies
You've been holding me down for too long
You were wrong
But this I don't mind
I'm choosing love right now, right now and forever

With no regrets
I've no regrets, no, no
I'm choosing love now
I finally figured it out

Love's the way
Love's the way
Love's the way
Love's the way
