

About Us

JOY.

I've been thinking, I've been thinking
I've been thinking about us
I've been thinking, I've been thinking
I've been thinking about what we had
I've been thinking that you had to come along on my heart
And it's hurting me so bad
It's hurting me so bad
Every time you walk away
I still need you by my side
Every time you call me up again
You know I loved you but you lied
You know I loved you but you lied to me

And I'm trying to move on from you
Yeah I'm trying to move on from you
And I'm trying to let go of you
Yeah I'm trying to let go from you

I've been thinking, I've been thinking
I've been thinking about us
I've been thinking, I've been thinking
I've been thinking about what we had
I've been thinking about how there's somebody else
And that's just too bad, that's just too bad
Every time you walk away
I still need you by my side
Every time you call me up again
You know I loved you but you lied
You know I loved you but you lied to me

Can you find it in your soul to stay
Take what you need don't just walk away
You knew that I was too good for you
I can see it's haunting you

And I'm trying to move on from you
Yeah I'm trying to move on from you
And I'm trying to let go of you
Yeah I'm trying to let go from you
