

Depends On

JOY.

I tried to run but I
I can't outrun myself
I tried to hide but I
I can't go anywhere else
Inside my mind
There is a battlefield
You're across the line

How'd I get here in the first place?
I swear it was just another day
Then the night will come again
And everyday it's all the same, it's all the same
It's all the same

So I hope you're worth waiting on
Doesn't matter bout how far we've (Far we've come)
Should I stay or should I run?
That all depends on, depends on

How'd I get here in the first place?
I swear it was just another day
Then the night will come again
And everyday it's all the same
It's all the same

So I hope you're worth waiting on
Doesn't matter bout how far we've, far we've come
Should I stay or should I run?
That all depends on, depends on
I guess that all depends on (You)
