

Smoke Too Much

JOY.

I hear you speak
I know it's you
I'm in too deep
I've fallen through

Now you're gone
Feel like I'm choking
Heal these wounds, walk in circles
As I come back to life
When I run through the sky
You pull me back every time that I leave
I'm fine 'til I leave ya

Maybe I smoke too much
I had the weirdest feeling yesterday
Maybe I smoke too much
I had the weirdest feeling yesterday

I've hit my peak
I'm through the roof
I'm choosing it
It over you

Now you're gone
Feel like I'm choking
Heal these wounds, walk in circles
As I come back to life
When I run through the sky
You pull me back every time that I leave
I'm fine 'til I leave ya

Maybe I smoke too much
I had the weirdest feeling yesterday
Maybe I smoke too much
I had the weirdest feeling yesterday

Time will tell
It's something only I can know myself
I chase away the ones that try to help
But when I do I only run into myself
Run into myself, yeah

Maybe I smoke too much
I had the weirdest feeling yesterday
Baby, I'm out of luck
'Cause baby, nothing ever comes my way

You're the air I breathe
You're the air I breathe
You're the air I breathe
