

Think About It

JOY.

Stay until the day is old
I need you by my side
Stay until the rain is over now
And tell whoever needs to know
I'm yours, baby

I sit and I think of the secrets we've told
And you paint me your muse with a stroke that's so bold
I sit and think of the echoes I hold you
I'm down on my luck, yeah, I'll double down

Don't even think about it
You don't have a choice
Don't even think about it
Hand off the dial
Don't even think about it now
Don't throw in the towel
Don't even think about it

I'm sorry if I test your patience
Believe me, I'm not trying
I'm learning how to navigate this
And I think that I've lost my mind

I sit and I think of the secrets we've told
When you paint me your muse with a stroke that's so bold
I sit and think of the echoes I hold
I'm down on my luck, yeah, I'll double down

Don't even think about it
You don't have a choice
Don't even think about it
Hand off the dial
Don't even think about it now
Don't throw in the towel
Don't even think about it

Don't even think about it
You don't have a choice
Don't even think about it
Hand off the dial
Don't even think about it now
Don't throw in the towel
