

Abaigh's Song

Joy Again

Oh, what a shame
I have forgotten my own name
Oh, I'm such an idiot
You'll pity me the same

But I'll remember when Abaigh calls me

She's always put together
Or when I am falling apart
She's always speaking in tongues
You know I love you very much

I'll never forget it when Abaigh calls me
I'll never forget when I was lonely
