

Angel

Joy Again

You think you're perfect
It makes me nervous
And I feel fervent
Or I'm allergic
There's some perturbation
It's so contagious
How you sustain us
You hold and

I'm telling you goodbye
Don't say it back
Don't look around
When I'm not there
Don't listen to the voice
That's telling you I'm someone else
I'm only what I was to you back then

I'm telling you goodbye

How many times
Has it been
How many times I saw your apparition
In the dark
Late at night
Are you alright or is it me
That's not around enough for you to see
In your world
Where you live

I'm telling you goodbye
Don't say it back
Don't look around
When I'm not there
Don't listen to the voice
That's telling you I'm someone else
I'm only what I was to you back then

I'm telling you goodbye
Don't say it back
Don't look around
When I'm not there
Don't listen to the voice
That's telling you I'm someone else
I'm only what I was to you back then
