

Born A Fool

Joy Again

It's hard to process all information
Easy to complain, easy replacement
You learned to do it, or your least favorite
These things are important

You ought to try it another way
It's easy to speak, it's hard to say
It's hard to find your way
When fog surrounds you all day

I am born a fool
I'm too much a fool
I'm born a fool
I'm, I'm too much a fool

(Nice lil' diddy)

It's such a process to make some progress
Too many ways to say that they caught you
I thought I had it, I'm just an addict
Another telltale, boy, grow your hair out

You ought to try it another way
It's easy to speak, it's hard to say
It's hard to find your way
When fog surrounds you all day

I am born a fool
I'm too much a fool
I'm born a fool
I'm ooh ooh ooooh
