

Dead Dog

Joy Again

Dead dog, how could you leave me here?
No more barking (Oh yeah) when someone is near (Alright)
To us, to us (Feels good)

And then I realized how dumb it is
To despise someone I don't know
I should care for every moment
'Cause it's all gone before you know it

Dead dog, our eyes are filled with tears
From all the memories of all of the good years we had
From all the good years that we had

And then I realized how dumb it is
To despise someone I don't know
I should care for every moment
'Cause it's all gone before you know it
(Oh!)

And I realized how dumb it is
To despise someone I don't know
I should care for every moment
'Cause it's all gone before you know it

(See you later)
