Joy Again

I don't understand, have I lost your trust again?
I guess you think that all my friends are drug-addicted cartoon men
I'm sure that you've seen worse, I don't want you to be hurt
By the things I say when I get honest

I wanna be too far away
You'll never see my damn face again
I'll be in the right place again
You know

I swore it was okay, you told me that you were Tired of my attitude and all the stupid things I do
I don't care, I'll ignore when you knock up on the door
Go ahead and say you're sorry, I don't buy it

I wanna be too far away
You'll never see my damn face again
I'll be in the right place again
You know, know, yeah

I wanna be too far away
You'll never see my damn face again
I'll be in the right place again
You know, you know, know, yeah
