

S'no (B-Side)

Joy Again

It's still snowing when I go inside
Snowing when you feel alright
Snowing when you feel good
Just say the things you know you should

Never pull apart the curtains
No matter what you're still certain
Winter wind will hold on to you
Even when you don't get into
Practicing your favorite poems
This is Buster and you quote him
Carefully unwrapping presents
Throw it out and learn your lesson, o-on

"Yo, Grimal wants to get drunk, as long as you drink one beer"
[laughing]
(One, two, one two!)

It's still snowing when I go inside
Snowing when you feel alright
Snowing when you feel good
Just say the things you know you should

Never pull apart the curtains
No matter what you're still certain
Winter wind will hold on to you
Even when you don't get into
Practicing your favorite poems
This is Buster and you quote him
Carefully unwrapping presents
Throw it out and learn your lesson

Hey!
Woo!
Fuck yeah!
AHHH!
