

So Blue (B-Side)

Joy Again

I pretended to not care
I pretended to understand

So blue, so blue about you
So blue

Resurrected emotion was just my mistake
Never ending, some dreams are meant to die

So blue, so blue about you
So blue

I feel rejected, but really, I mostly feel confused
You never meant it, maybe there was never much to lose

So blue, so blue about you
So blue
So blue, so blue about you
So blue
