

Today's The Day

Joy Again

Today's the day that I fade away
Take a good look right at me and say it to my face
I'm amazed at the mess I made
I would say that I'm sorry, but I think it's too late

Today's the day that I found my place
In the memories of all those I left in my wake
Every day is the worst that I've faced
But no more pain and suffering is left in my way

Left in my way
Left in my way
Left in my way
Left in my way
