

GOOD ENOUGH

Joy Oladokun

You did the best with the cards in your hand
Weight of the world on your shoulders
I see it all with more grace looking back
Lessons you learn when you're older

Your love was good enough, good enough, good enough for me
Even in your darkest times, you saved some light for me
Your love was good enough, good enough, good enough for me
Chipped away the edges to the softness underneath
I hope you know, I hope you know
Your love was good enough
I hope you know, I hope you know

You did the best with the pain in your heart
Patience was never your virtue
Nobody gets it all right from the start
We've all got troubles to work through

Your love was good enough, good enough, good enough for me
Even in your darkest times, you saved some light for me
Your love was good enough, good enough, good enough for me
Chipped away the edges to the softness underneath
I hope you know, I hope you know
Your love was good enough
I hope you know, I hope you know

Tears can overflow
It's easy to drown in the hands you can't hold
Fear's hard to let go
I miss the years when the days would go slow

Your love was good enough, good enough, good enough for me
Even in your darkest times, you saved some light for me
Your love was good enough, good enough, good enough for me
Chipped away the edges to the softness underneath
I hope you know, I hope you know
I hope you know
Your love was good enough
I hope you know
I hope you know, I hope you know
I hope you know
Your love was good enough
I hope you know

I hope you know
Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
I hope you know
