

party to end all parties

Joyce Manor

I'm gonna feed my throat to the biggest swallow
Ink it all up and they all follow
Burn it all down watch them leave
Although stationed to the right, to the right, to the right
Is a great big bird with a brain in its halo
Singing for the end for the chicks to follow
Eating just the same eating very little
Journey through the mind of the biggest hollow

Running through the beer and the feathers to go home
Ringing New Year's telling you to let go
Let go to fly, take flight to see the party to end all parties, sweet huh?
The great big bird with a brain in its halo
Singing for the end for the chicks to follow
Eating just the same eating very little
Journey through the mind of the biggest hollow
