

Reversing Machine

Joyce Manor

People used to tell me
That I could buy and sell me.
There's no such thing as luck.

Well hey, okay.
Then how do you explain?
How things have changed so much?

In the autumn leaves high on LSD
Here comes the campus security to take that away from me.
I wanna see for myself. I wanna see what it means.
But I can't cause I'm stuck in a reversing machine.

People used to tell me
That I could buy and sell me.
There's no such thing as luck.

Well hey, okay.
Then how do you explain?
How things have changed so much?
