I know by now I should be better
If I'm speaking truthfully
And honestly, I'm feelin' kinda lonely
And I had you on my mind like a million times now

If they hit my line, I hit the read
They text me twice, I leave it read
I know it's bad for me, but all I want is you
All I need, all I see, all I dream about is you

Can't stay away, I'm on it
Addicted to you
'Cause day and night, I want it
Addicted to that good feeling
Oh, yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah
Yeah, yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah
Can't stay away, I want it

I've been staying out the wave, can't get a break
My heart and mind are still right here, yeah-yeah, yeah
Can't help but feel some way, what you doing to me?
Can't nobody love me better now
I want you back, but it's different now
No self-control, your love's taking all
How do I move on? Maybe one day

If you hit my line, I hit the read
If you text me twice, leave it on read
I know it's bad for me, but, baby, all I want is you
All I need, all I see, all I dream about is you

Can't stay away, I'm on it
Addicted to you
'Cause day and night, I want it
Addicted to that good feeling
Oh, yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah
Oh, yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah-yeah
Can't stay away, I want it
