Joyner Lucas

Alright, alright
You proved your point, but what else you got? Uh
What else you got?
I can guarantee with every ounce of my being that there's a part of you you haven't tapped into yet
And we're waiting
We know the dark side, we've seen it, you've lived it
Where's the light? Mm
I know you got it in you
I'm not telling you how to run your show
Lord knows if it was me, I would have did it the exact same way
But please, hear me and hear me good
For the sake of my ears from falling off my face
Please switch it up for me
Come on now, J
I need that switch
I need that switch, J, come on, please
So you've told your story, but what else you got to give?
We need something else, man
ADHD
You know what your ADHD is? All Day He Dreams
What are your dreams, Joyner?
