

We Gon Be Alright

Joyner Lucas

We gon be alright

I gave you a chance even though you're not my type

I did some things I ain't proud of, but I never leave your side

Okay I never leave your side

You had some shit you were going through and you ain't even cry

So if I take advantage of you, you won't be so nice

You told me next time, there won't be no next time, look me in the eye

And I gave you a chance even though you not my type

Thought you told me, I ain't gonna let you hit, unless you stay tonight

You treated me like them other hoe's that you might fuck sometimes

But I did some things that a nigga ain't proud of but I never leave your side

Okay I never leave your side

You had some shit you were going through and you ain't even cry

And if I take advantage of you, you won't be so nice

You said that next time, there won't be no next time, look me in my eye

I told her we gon be alright

Woah, and I just lost my job

Yeah, I've been stressin', hoped I could talk to god

Cause lately conversation with you kind of crucial, ever since

I got laid off you don't treat me like you used to

(You know how much I love you)

But now my backs to the wall

Kinda hard to believe when you make it seem like you not havin' a ball

You make it harder for me when you wanna leave but I miss havin' your all

You ain't talkin' to me, it's been a week, and I ain't happy at all

Listen, it's been way too long and you been actin' funny

You say shit, like you'd bend over backwards for me

Shit we've been back and forth since last December

We break up, but it don't matter 'cause we get right back together

I remember, I remember you said...

We gon be alright

I gave you a chance even though you're not my type

I did some things I ain't proud of, but I never leave your side

Okay I never leave your side

You had some shit you were going through and you ain't even cry

So if I take advantage of you, you won't be so nice

And if I take advantage of you, you won't be so nice

You said that next time, there won't be no next time, look me in my eye

I told her we gon be alright

Man my homie said he heard you complain about me

And I've been stressin' hopin' you feel the same about me

Cause lately conversations with you kind of crucial, ever since

I got laid off you don't fuck me like you used to, no

(And you know we could be so good together)

Okay back to the basics

I love when you tell me you trust me and don't want to go back to the fake s hit
You fuss and I get all my stuff and move back down to the basement
And plus, I don't wanna be the one to be givin' up right now when i'm anxio s
I've been thinkin', I've been down since days you ain't had no money
You say shit, like you'd bend over backwards for me
Shit we've been back and forth since last December
We break up, but it don't matter 'cause we get right back together
I remember, I remember you said...

We gon be alright
I gave you a chance even though you're not my type
I did some things I ain't proud of, but I never leave your side (I'll give y
