

Coming Apart

Joywave

(Annyeonghaseyo)

Crazy, I'm feeling you but
It's an age made for disposable love
It'd be easy if it were a joke
I'm afraid that we finally broke it, it's true

Why can't you unwind? (I do)
You're going to split yourself in two
You look so tired (That's rude)
How can you be so sure?

It's coming apart
It's coming apart
It's coming apart
It's coming apart

You're amazing and beautiful
But it's an age made for the stupid and numb
We've got parents regretting their young
A malaise that could block out the sun soon

Why can't you unwind? (I do)
You're going to split yourself in two
You look so tired (That's rude)
How can you be so sure?

It's coming apart
It's coming apart

Here it goes, watch it die
Aim it low, wrong is right

It's coming apart
It's coming apart
It's coming apart
Why can't you unwind?
It's coming apart
It's coming apart
It's coming apart
Why can't you unwind?
It's coming apart
It's coming apart
It's coming apart
