

Last idea I had got swallowed by a black hole
I could cure cancer, but they'd give the prize to some asshole

Wasting time, everybody's in your mind
Yeah you coulda done it first, but the fit just wasn't right

You're here, but look at the others
They got more than you
So you need another
You had nothing, then you did the numbers
But if you'd change your view
You'd see there's nowhere better to be

Step outside of the pre-drawn lines I've assembled
Help me find a balance in the malice
I don't wanna be cynical

Wasting time, everybody's in your mind
Yeah you coulda done it first, but the market wasn't right

You're here, but look at the others
They got more than you
So you need another
You had nothing, then you did the numbers
But if you'd change your view
You'd see there's nowhere better to be

I don't wanna be cynical
I don't wanna be cynical
I don't wanna be cynical
I don't wanna be cynical
I don't wanna be cynical
I don't wanna be cynical
I don't wanna be cynical
I don't wanna be cynical
I don't

There's nowhere better to be, yeah
There's nowhere better to be, yeah, yeah, yeah
There's nowhere better to be, yeah
There's nowhere better to be, yeah, yeah, yeah
There's nowhere better to be
