

Pray For The Reboot

Joywave

It's midnight
When the truth's in the user
We've all lost the future
A timeline
Darker than the one I was
Dealing with the last time

No help, no help
The world's gone crazy
It's on something lately
No help, no help
Just pray for the reboot
And when the call goes out again

I hope they give me that part
Big names are in
We'll take it back to the start
We'll take it back to the start

Hold tight
You can wish me luck
But don't throw me a lifeline
A quick decline
Hit rock bottom
And wait for the greenlight

No help, no help
The world's gone crazy
It's on something lately
No help, no help
Just pray for the reboot
And when the call goes out again

I hope they give me that part
Big names are in
We'll take it back to the start

Almost believable
It's achievable
But can we make it less dark?
When the call goes out again
We'll take it back to the start

We'll take it back to the start
We'll take it back to the start

When the call goes out again
I hope they give me that part
Big names are in
We'll take it back to the start

Almost believable
It's achievable
But can we make it less dark?
