

Masterpiece

JP Cooper

Laying in my arms and sleeping in my bed we made it
I hear the rain against the window, but I know the glass won't break
Just like the pounding in my heart, I'm strong enough, my ribs can take it
I don't need your words, your comforting to me's contagious

Ah ah ah ah
Ah ah ah ah ooh

And honestly, I love you to infinity
And darling, you're my masterpiece
And no Pablo Picasso could capture the beauty I see

Caught up in your calmness, now they know the winds won't shake me
They can strap my ankles to a rocket, they ain't dragging me aw ay
And I'll take on the lions and tigers and bears if they should come between us
You're the serotonin in my brain and you have made my heart cou rageous

I swear you'll make everything fine
You're in my mind all of the time

And honestly, I love you to infinity
And darling, you're my masterpiece
And no Pablo Picasso could capture the beauty I see

Sunshine, don't you know, oh-oh-oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
I got you?
Sweetheart, don't you know, oh-oh-oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
I got you?
Sunshine, don't you know, oh-oh-oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
I got you?

And honestly, I love you to infinity
And darling, you're my masterpiece
And no Pablo Picasso could capture the beauty I see

And honestly, I love you to infinity
And darling, you're my masterpiece
And no Pablo Picasso could capture the beauty I see
