JP Cooper

I woke the other night, thinking about you
In fact it's every night that I'm thinking about you
How we never tried, never tried, never tried

And in the rear view, I see us breaking
And those red light risks we were taking
Left us compromised, couldn't seemed to get it right

When you hear this song, oh
When you hear this song play on the radio
When you hear this song, oh
Would you give a damn about the words I wrote?
When you hear this song, oh
When you hear this song play on the radio
Would you turn it off
Or would you turn it up?

Turn it up, turn it up
(I wanna turn it up)
Turn it up, turn it up
Turn it up, turn it up
(I wanna turn it up)
Would you turn it up, turn it up?

I've always been the one to burn this down
I wanna be the one to turn this around
So if you're listening let me in and hear me out

When you hear this song, oh
When you hear this song play on the radio
When you hear this song, oh
Would you give a damn about the words I wrote?
When you hear this song, oh
When you hear this song play on the radio
Would you turn it off, oh
Or would you turn it up?

Turn it up, turn it up
(I wanna turn it up)
Turn it up, turn it up
Turn it up, turn it up
(I wanna turn it up)
Would you turn it up, turn it up?

'Cause I can't go on waking up without you anymore
And the sleep, it don't come easy
'Cause I'm hoping that you'll show up at my door
So darlin' if you hear this song, oh
If you hear this song play on the radio
Would you turn it off, oh
Or would you turn it up?

Turn it up, turn it up
(I wanna turn it up)
Turn it up, turn it up
Turn it up, turn it up
(I wanna turn it up)

Would you turn it up, turn it up?
