

Satellite

JP Cooper

Every time I hate that I can't get my way
I wanted you by my side
I know you'd probably be miles away
Footsteps in the hold
All I'm waiting for
Wished her were mine
But she wouldn't land my way
Sound as fire
But would she need my heart away?
I could go against the world for you
I've never felt so small

Satellite, couldn't get it right
You're the only one in my sky
Satellite, take your time
When you come back down
Can't we give a little try

There were times I was away
My little lady knew it where to find me
Setting away, little gray I seek
What you mean to me!

Satellite, couldn't get it right
You're the only one in my sky
Satellite, take your time
When you some back down
Can't wait we give a little try!
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
You're the only one in my sky
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
When you some back down
Can't wait we give a little try!

Don't you know I needed you?
Why did you walk away?
Don't you know I needed you?
Why couldn't you have stayed?
Don't you know I needed you?

Satellite, couldn't get it right
You're the only one in my sky
Satellite, take your time
When you come back down
Can't we give a little try!
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
You're the only one in my sky
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
Satellite (I'll be waiting)
When you some back down
Can't wait we give a little try!

I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting
