

Yes

JP Cooper

No, I can't replace the moon up in the sky
But I'll try to be the candle in your night
I can't stop the leaves from falling every summer comes to pass
But I'll promise you a love that's gonna last

So I say, yes, I do
So I say, yes, I do
Of all the things I ever knew
Yes, I do, oh yes, I do love you

When you ask me, is a promise just for now
And I answer, did I ever let you down?
You say everybody walks away, but hey, I'm still around
'Cause you don't leave when you've got what I found

So I say, yes, I do
So I say, yes, I do
Of all the things I ever knew
Yes, I do, oh yes, I do love you

Say I'm gonna leave you never
Say I'm gonna stay forever
Say I'm gonna leave you never
Say I'm gonna stay forever

So I say, yes, I do
So I say, yes, I do
Of all the things I ever knew
Yes, I do, oh yes, I do love you
