

Blurry

JP Saxe

You're praying heavy over me
You're sat in my cells getting lost at sea
You're warning me where I wanna be
And all that I'm in
Now the parts of my skin touching yours

You only got one thing left on
Back and forth swings that necklace I bought you
Telling me "please don't stop"
'Cause all that I'm in
Now the parts of my skin touching yours

And everything's blurry but you
And everything's blurry but you
And everything's blurry but you
And everything's blurry but you

And all that I'm in
Now the parts of my skin touching yours

Your lips up against my neck
You whisper in my ear "don't let go yet"
And I don't gotta know what's next
'Cause all that I'm in
Now the parts of my skin touching yours

And everything's blurry but you
And everything's blurry but you
And everything's blurry but you
And everything's blurry but you

'Cause all that I'm in
Now the parts of my skin touching yours

(Everything's blurry but you
Everything's blurry but you
Everything's blurry but you
Everything's blurry but you)
('Cause all that I'm in
Now the parts of my skin touching yours
'Cause all that I'm in
Now the parts of my skin touching yours)
