

Let A Ginger Make You Cry

JP Saxe

Here's my full attention, have it inconsistently
Hear you out with that manipulative sympathy
Tell me everything that makes you insecure
I like it when you say, "Baby, you're such a good listener"
Just when you think you find a different kind of guy
Tell your friends you can't believe you let a ginger make you cry
Hurts way more, 'cause he seemed so sweet
I got you down bad for me

Let's talk till 3 a.m.
I'll be sleepy for you tomorrow
I got shit to do, but you're worth it
Tell me about your siblings and your first kiss
I want your phone to your ear like teenagers in the 90s
Wrap the cord around your finger, let me hear you smiling
Tomorrow, I'll text you good morning with a smiley
Is it too soon to say I wish you were beside me?
I want that space in the back of your mind
I want to temporarily do everything right

Here's my full attention, have it inconsistently
Hear you out with that manipulative sympathy
Tell me everything that makes you insecure
I like it when you say, "Baby, you're such a good listener"
Just when you think you found a different kind of guy
Tell your friends you can't believe you let a ginger make you cry
Hurts way more, 'cause he seemed so sweet
I got you down bad for me

I got you down bad
I got you down bad for me
I got you down bad

Cute little gifts 'cause of something that you said one time
That special Dolly Parton vinyl that you couldn't find
It seems kind, but it's just designed
To take all your favorite things and make them put me on your mind

You call me drunk, we haven't spoken for weeks
You say, "Fuck you, Casper, I can't believe you ghosted me
You act so mature, so emotionally intelligent
Go to therapy, and claim to be a feminist
Guess that was just a decoy, dick with a nice voice
Self-awareness doesn't make you any less a fuckboy"

Tell you that you're right
I can tell you like it
So I say it twice
You're right, you're right
And I apologize
You say that's not what you needed, you just needed me to know
I say, "Why don't you come over, talk it through a little more?"
You say, "Nice try, we had our moment, and that moment's gone
Maybe I'll forgive you if you put it in a song"

Here's my full attention, have it inconsistently
Hear you out with that manipulative sympathy

Tell me everything that makes you insecure
I like it when you say, "Baby, you're such a good listener"
Just when you think you find a different kind of guy
Tell your friends you can't believe you let a ginger make you cry
Hurts way more, 'cause he seemed so sweet
I got you down bad for me

I got you down bad
Got you down bad for me
I got you down bad
Got you down bad for me

Got you down bad
