

STRANGERS

JP Saxe

I've been talking to strangers
Telling them way too much about myself
I walk them through what happened
How you chose your fears and doubts
Lately it's all I know how to go on about

When you're talking to strangers
Are they all so quick to sympathize?
When you tell them our perspectives
Do they all take your side
Just like everyone here has been taking mine?

If I come over
Can we just pretend
It's 2019 and I'm still just your friend
And you can tell me everything
And I can hold you
Like it's just that simple
And I can hold you
Like it's just that simple

Prefiero pretender que soy tu amiga
Y escuchar problemas que tenés con otra
Aunque no sé cómo mirarte a ti a los ojos
Sin que te des cuenta que estoy rota
Ay, ¿cómo voy a hacer pa' desatar
Lo que hay en mi garganta?
Aunque probablemente me va a herir
De amigo me haces menos falta

If I come over
Can we just pretend
It's 2019 and I'm still just your friend
And you can tell me everything
And I can hold you
Like it's just that simple
And I can hold you
Like it's just that simple

I don't want what we had
But I still want you, just as bad
I fell out of love with us
But I'm still so in love with you
It's still the best thing
I've ever known how to do

If I come over
Can we just pretend
It's 2019 and I'm still just your friend
And you can tell me everything
And I can hold you
And I can hold you
