

I'm Yours

Jr. George Tandy

I pick up all your pieces, Put you back together
Wrap my arms around you baby, And I promise I'll be different Don't ever change. I'll give you back the love you gave me
Cause I'm hopelessly in love, I'm hopeless in love
To convince you to wear this little ring, girl
Sure this ain't your turn, whatever it takes I'll learn
I'm not perfect but I'm yours
I'm yours (I'm yours) Of course (of course)
I'll be your love, your moral support
I'm yours, of course
There's no rush we've been here before
I'll fix you breakfast baby, french toast and eggs with ketchup Hope that some DJs feel it, how knows qit might just make us we althy
But I still get that 9 to 5, just so I can provide the type of lifestyle that you need
So shorty stake your terms...
I'm not perfect but I'm yours
I'm yours (I'm yours) Of course (Of course)
I'll be your lover your moral support
I'm yours Of course
There's no rush we've been here before
I wanna relieve your stress when your tensed up and over pressu red
The everyday struggles do gt lonely
And I try to control my temper, there's really no sense in trip ping
At the end of the day I'm glad you chose me
So I still let you hit the club, cause we both know whats up
Them fools just cant do it quite like Georgie does
So shorty state your terms, whatever it takes to earn
The love of an Angel but of course
I'm yours (I'm yours) Of course (Of course)
I'll be your lover your moral support
I'm yours Of course
There's no rush we've been here before
