

Jaded

Jr. George Tandy

Settle down, just settle down, I know
I'm not supposed to come around you no more
I know you're scarred, I know you're jaded
Don't mean no harm, just let me say this

You're so beautiful, it's outrageous
You're so beautiful that I hate it
And it's all my fault that we faded
The way, what I'm trying to say, what I'm trying to say is

I will do you right (this time)
I will do you right (this time)
I will do you right (this time)
I will do you right (this time)

Seasons change and people follow
Same face, different mind, so
Not today may be tomorrow
Could we catch up for a little while, 'cause

You're so beautiful, it's outrageous
You're so genuine, I'm so anxious
And this fool you found is the lamest
Brush him off, he can never be what you saw in me

I will do you right (this time)
I will do you right (this time)
I will do you right (this time)
I will do you right (this time)

I know you've heard this all before
The promises won't break down your walls, no
I know you're scared of me and your mind says, "Run away."
We both know that love from someone else won't be the same

I will do you right
I will do you right (this time)
I will do you right (yeah)
I will do you right
