

Hiding

JR JR

If I can't have you
What am I gonna do?
What am I gonna do if I can't have you?

Oh, tried and true
Buried up behind the school
Where the mud is thick as glue
What am I gonna do?

This is what you said to me

Covered up in skin
All the vessels there within
Every single little sin
Covered up in skin

And your head is on my lap
All your cells are little maps
Said I can't tell where we're at
So we'll just go back

This is what you said to me

I ain't hiding
I ain't hiding no more
I ain't hiding
I ain't hiding no more

And the grass is wild and tall
In the field behind the mall
Covers you up like a shawl
Don't you feel so small?

This is what you said to me

I ain't hiding
I ain't hiding no more
No more, no more
No more, no more
