The Fisherman

JR JR

God is in the details
And I am just a fisherman
On a set sea
Waiting to see what's on the end of my line

The devil is always counting, counting, counting
She could try to get some sleep
Waiting to see
What's on the end of his line

Just so you know that today's just like tomorrow, we'll meet ag ain
Just so you know that today's just like tomorrow, we'll meet ag
ain
Just so you know that today's just like tomorrow, we'll meet ag
ain
Just so you know that today's just like tomorrow, we'll meet ag
ain
Just so you know...

I couldn't catch all of my mistakes
Like Jonah
And I can't (make sense?)
On shore
```
