

All We Need

JRDN

All we need is love
All we need is
All we need is
All we need is

It ain't nothing like the sunshine in the mornin'
But you're locked up so you cannot see the day
And there's no feelin' like when you've had your freedom stripped away
When your joy turns into pain, woah

And they say the war is over
But why are we still dyin'
And we say we're doin' all we can
Then why are our children cryin'
Is this the conclusion
We need a resolution
(When all our hope is lost and there's nowhere to run)

All we need is love
When all that's left is gone
And all that's right is wrong
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that
All we need is love
When broken hearts won't mend
And something's gotta give
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is
Just a little bit of love
Just a little bit of love
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is
Just a little bit of love
Just a little bit of love
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is love

So you walk around sayin' your life ain't easy
But your next door neighbor's livin' his last day
There's a mother on the corner cuz she cannot pay her way
And she got three kids to feed, woah

And instead of hearin' laughter
Tell me why I'm hearin' sirens
You say you want the world to change
But nobody's tryin'
Is this the conclusion
We need a resolution
(When all our hope is lost and there's nowhere to run)

All we need is love
And all that's right is wrong
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is love
When broken hearts won't mend
And something's gotta give

Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is love
When it feels like there is nothing left
Grab a hold of love and do your best
And I know it'll never do you wrong
Cause all we need is, all we need is love
When all that's left is gone
And all that's right is wrong
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is love
When broken hearts won't mend
And something's gotta give
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is
Just a little bit of love
Just a little bit of love
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is
Just a little bit of love
Just a little bit of love
Won't you wake up, wake up
Can't you see that all we need is love
