

Ray Bans

JT Hodges

She was dancin' with her hands up, showin' that band up
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)

Singin' out Mary Jane, sippin' that hurricane
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)

Ocean in the background, bay sun settin' down

That's when she came and grabbed my shades
Smiled and stood 'em on her face

She was hotter than a fire on a summer night
I was burnin', still burnin' up inside
Oh that one little gonna miss kiss she gave me goodbye
Wherever she's at, wherever she's gone
Hope she still has my Ray Bans on, on, on, on, that's right
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)

She was my boardwalk baby, callin' me baby
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
Little miss rock star, sunglasses in the dark
(Oh, oh, oh, oh)
Wish I coulda made it last, wish I could just go on back to

When she came and grabbed my shades
Smiled and stood 'em on her face

She was hotter than a fire on a summer night
I was burnin', still burnin' up inside
Oh that one little gonna miss kiss she gave me goodbye
Wherever she's at, wherever she's gone
Hope she still has my Ray Bans on, on, on, on, that's right

Hope she still has my Ray Bans on
Hope she still has my Ray Bans on

Hotter than a fire on a summer night
I was burnin', still burnin' up inside
Oh that one little gonna miss kiss she gave me goodbye
Wherever she's at, wherever she's gone
Hope she still has my Ray Bans on, on, on, on, that's right

Hope she still has my Ray Bans on
Hope she still has my Ray Bans on
Ray Bans on, Ray Bans on, Ray Bans on
