

All That Matters

J.Tajor

Love the way you fix your hair up in the morning
Girl, you deserve all lovely things you ever wanted
You keep me honest, you're the love that I need
I'm your shoulder, you can lean, you're the only one I see

But sometimes I overthink, thinking I'm not enough
But know that I'm never leaving, I'm never giving you up, oh no
My motivation 'cause with you, I know
That I can get through these nights with you by my side

You're all I, I ever wanted
Give you my loving, all that matters is you
You're all I ever need now
The one that I'm always missing, give me this feeling
You're the reason that I'm coming back for
I give you my dedication, deserve it all
You're all I ever need now
The one that I'm always missing, give me this feeling

Take your hand, take you through the darkest storm
Endless love, you know I can, coldest nights, I keep you warm, yeah
I'm at your demand, I hate when you have to go
Baby, say a little more, you still running on my mind

But sometimes I overthink, thinking I'm not enough
But know that I'm never leaving, I'm never giving you up, oh no
My motivation 'cause with you, I know
That I can get through these nights with you by my side

You're all I, I ever wanted
Give you my loving, all that matters is you
You're all I ever need now
The one that I'm always missing, give me this feeling
You're the reason that I'm coming back for
I give you my dedication, deserve it all
You're all I ever need now
The one that I'm always missing, give me this feeling
