

Coming Back

J.Tajor

I could tell that you were the one since the beginning
There was something about you, I can't, I can't resist it
Know you've been broken in the past, I've been wasted
Wanna be the one to heal your heart, let me mend it

I won't be, won't be far
Let me heal all your scars
Let me love all your flaws
Give you all of my love
Wouldn't have it any other way
There ain't nobody else
Girl, you had me feeling something
I ain't never felt

Always keep me coming back
Circle back around
Baby, you're the one I want for life
I don't have a doubt
My focus is on you girl, it's only us now
No, I could never be the one to let you down
I'mma keep you warm through the storm
Let me hold you
I'll be by the phone when you call
Know I'm coming through
Give you comfort through the hurt, when you're lonely
I will provide, give you what you desire

Keep me in line putting the time you see right through my wall
The only one that understands me ain't nobody knows
Baby when you're feeling weak
I, I can give you remedy
I, I can lift you up whenever it gets low

I won't be, won't be far
Let me heal all your scars
Let me love all your flaws
Give you all of my love
Wouldn't have it any other way
There ain't nobody else
Girl, you had me feeling something
I ain't never felt

Always keep me coming back
Circle back around
Baby, you're the one I want for life
I don't have a doubt
My focus is on you girl, it's only us now
No, I could never be the one to let you down
I'mma keep you warm through the storm
Let me hold you
I'll be by the phone when you call
Know I'm coming through
Give you comfort through the hurt, when you're lonely
I will provide, give you what you desire
