

Why I

J.Tajor

Oh-oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh, oh
I want you to stay, stay

I can't control help myself, down through these tough times
Tears on your shirt make you hurt, the truth ain't no lie
Somebody else wants your heart, but your heart is all mine
Come back to you, work it out, you know that I tried (yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah)

Oh, baby, is it me? Don't know why I
I don't deserve your loyalty, I don't know why I
No, I won't find nobody else, your heart is all mine
I keep on worryin' all your secrets, baby, for life

Over and over and over again
Fightin' over all the things that I said
I said things that I should've never said
Thinkin' 'bout how things would end
No, I can't be without your kiss
Know this would happen if I did

Baby, let's just go and get away (get away)
Tell me, baby, what you wanna do today
I know you've been here before, you deserve so much more
Want somebody who knows you and all of your flaws

I can't control help myself, down through these tough times
Tears on your shirt make you hurt, the truth ain't no lie
Somebody else wants your heart, but your heart is all mine
Come back to you, work it out, you know that I tried (yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah)

Oh, baby, is it me? Don't know why I
I don't deserve your loyalty, I don't know why I
No, I won't find nobody else, your heart is all mine
I keep on worryin' all your secrets, baby, for life

I want you to stay
You can leave your things so baby, stay
I just wanna show you what it is to know you
One thing on my mind, I don't wanna hurt you

You can leave your problems all on me, wait for you
You can put that body all on me, just hold you
Feelin' all your needs, girl, you can lay it on me
And leave your stress all on me 'cause we got places to see

I can't control help myself, down through these tough times
Tears on your shirt make you hurt, the truth ain't no lie
Somebody else wants your heart, but your heart is all mine
Come back to you, work it out, you know that I tried (yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah)

Oh, baby is it me? Don't know why I
I don't deserve your loyalty, I don't know why I
No, I won't find nobody else, your heart is all mine
I keep on worryin' all your secrets, baby, for life

Oh-oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh, oh
I want you to stay, stay (yeah, yeah)

Oh-oh-oh, oh
Oh, oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh, oh
I want you to stay
