Look at me now, nigga, look at me now
You weren't calling me then, don't go calling me now
Give a fuck if you starve, give a fuck 'bout your heart
You can eat that shit out, hope that thirst wash it down
Look at me now, nigga, look at me now
A six-figure bitch now, I done figured it out
I was holding shit down, taking care of your child
That wasn't even not mine, you was dogging me out, nigga
Nigga, look at me now
Now you gotta double-take
Now you know that I'm the one you let get away
Look at me now, was looking for a future bae
I hold the key [?] at the super [?]
Look at me now, 3D, HD
On my IG, I hope it make your eyes bleed
Look at me now, this is what you made me
VIP front seat, you gotta pay me
To look at me now

Best thing for me was to walk out that door
Too toxic been for me, I had to let go
If that was a game, nigga, you are a pro
Bitches and hoes, you was outta control
And you thought I didn't know
So I balled on your bitch and went for the Gold
Remember when I used to suck clean D going through your dirt
Yeah, fuck, nigga, that hurt
And everything that you did to me, the only thing that hurt worse
Is that I couldn't do it to you first
So what was left for me, I went and put it in a verse
I bet you wish that I was somewhere laying in a hearse
I bet you wish that I could come back and try make it work
But it is not no room for you with my back in the vert
Huh, now I'm popping bitch, and I'm turnt
I ain't blocking shit, just look and see me get what I deserve

Look at me now, nigga, look at me now
You weren't calling me then, don't go calling me now
Give a fuck if you starve, give a fuck 'bout your heart
You can eat that shit out, hope that thirst wash it down
Look at me now, nigga, look at me now

Now tell me was the pussy worth it?
Tell me was the nut really that urgent?
For you to go destroy what was picture perfect?
You so dirty I can't even clean you with detergent
Preaching to the choir, guess I missed the sermon

At your lies, now you see the table turning
How you gon' compromise when you didn't ever earn it?
[?] nigga fuck you
You see me making major moves, you ain't gotta say what's up, boo
I'm on my new, new
New body, new ass, new man, and he fuck better than you do
You never care when I cry so nigga boohoo
The Rollie on my side now you know healed all the wound
But it's all cool, never wanted you to lose
But nigga look at me, and look at you
