

Heart of a Lion

Judas Priest

Crashing through the city streets
Caught in the glare of the midnight sun
I got wings upon my feet but locked as I run

I am just a breath away
From knockin' you senseless to the ground
No escape, I hear you say, you're never safe

From a heart, a heart of a lion
My heart, a heart of a lion

I close my eyes, I see your face
It seems like I'm breaking within your spell
Will I ever win this race? You're moving in [Incomprehensible] right from the sky

Bare as the spell as it cuts the air
In your hold I know that I will never find a love

Of a heart, a heart of a lion
My heart, a heart of a lion

All around I hear the sound of your mighty roar
As I give I find that you are calling out for more

All around I hear the sound of your mighty roar
As I give I find that you are crying

Of a lion heart, of a lion heart
Heart, a heart of a lion
Heart, a heart of a lion
Heart, a heart of a lion
Double heart, a heart of a lion
