Worth Fighting For

Judas Priest

You said I could never find a way to ease your mind But where I go you wind up in the dust I tried so hard to have you reach another side of me Instead you went to nowhere and forgot

So I wander on Asking where you might have gone From what I knew before Some things are worth fighting for

Diserty can wear you down, but still I'm rollin' through Did I see your figure in the haze?

I am driven by your thirst, to quench myself of love
The sun beats on me for the price I pay

So I wander on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for, yeah

Night road leads me to a town of dust I'm beckoned by the gloss
Of jealousy and tumble weed
They're calling out, forevermore
Worth fighting for

I'm leading in the wind Head bowed down from what I saw My shadow far a friend There's some things are worth fighting for

So I'm moving on
Asking where you might have gone
From what I knew before
Some things are worth fighting for, yeah
