

Save Me

Jude.

Well there's a reason
Why I'm talking to myself
And there's a reason
Why I should be someone else

Well I'm drowning
You know I'm sinking like a stone
You see me drowning
Would you please pick up the phone

I only wanted everything I never had
Everything is broken and it keeps on getting bad
Save me
Save me

There's a reason why I'm talking to myself
There's a reason why I should be someone else

I only wanted everything I never had
Everything is broken and it keeps on getting bad
Save me
Save me

I got this feeling now for the first time in my life
You opened up that door
And when I fall you let me crawl inside
Are you gonna try
Cause I could shine

When I'm down
You come around
Are you gonna save me?
